

BEST OF FRUITS

By Teresa

Once in forgotten years there's a man living with his sons. The sons were very handsome strong and brave. Their father loved his sons and promised them that when he dies he will give each of them the fruit he deserves. The sons were happy but sad because they had only one father.

After the days had passed their father was becoming weak and weaker every day. The son tried to help their father to live another day. But a time reached when their father called them and he gave each of them a fruit. Their father told them that he had nothing to give them but only fruit. He told them that the fruit that will dry the first should take the magic house. And you should not let any light that comes from the sun come across the fruit. That was the last word their father told them.

The sons were very sad, but nothing they could do. Each of them went different ways. The first son was called Kim and the second one was Tim. They went far away from home. They left the magic house. They agreed that when their fruit dries you should come and take the house. When days had passed Tim saw that his fruit is not drying and he wanted to take the house. He never wanted to share anything with his brother. On the other hand Kim was faithful he waited and never lost hope.

One day Tim decided to take his fruit outside so that the sun could burn it and dry faster. After some days the fruit was dry, he took the fruit in the magic house and wished to be the rich man in the whole land. The house gave Tim everything he wanted. The house knew what Tim had done but he just wanted to make Tim happy before Kim could bring his fruit.

Tim was known over the land. The news spread that Tim was the richest man in the land. When Kim heard he knew that Tim had not done what their father told them. After long time the fruit of Kim dried. He took the fruit in the magic house. He wished to have long life and a good will and the last wish was he could be richer than his brother.

Soon everything Tim had disappeared. Everything was for Kim. Tim knew what had happened. He planned to kill Kim and take everything but his father's spirit. Kim lived happily ever after his brother's death. Kim was the one who got the best of fruits.
